We want to encourage people to use a single account and single device for both play and commerce, and make sure a player has one account per legal entity. Secondly, due to the increased penalty of repeat offenders, we will be engaging a number of additional human checkers to be on the lookout for violations. If you see anyone using multiple accounts or violating a terms of service agreement, please let an administrator know and they will be investigated. We have confirmed the new ban system to work and it will be applied over the next three days, starting 12AM November 30th PST. The system will be applied to all illegal accounts and comments made with those accounts. If you have multiple accounts on the same account holder, all of them will be banned. If you

Willis replied: "I think it's Walter Clemente's, and that was in the 1940's; he couldn't hit a curve ball, but he was a close second to Charley O'Leary." And: When Ken Hershman announced that Dave "Big Piece" Chesney would be the first player from Hawaii that would get the chance to appear in the All-Star Game in 2002, I would have said that if Rich "Big Piece" Hultzen was the one, then a lot of people would have said that it was a guy that deserved to go the All-Star Game and then they would not know that a couple of years later "Big Piece" would face the Yankees in the playoffs. Well, now that is exactly what is happening to a guy named "Big Piece" Hultzen. About the author: Author and model Michael Fortney is one of the most recognizable people in Hawaii. He has been an official courtside photographer for the Hawaii Warriors, Hawaii Locos, Hawaii Storm and Waikiki Beach Boys pro basketball teams, as well as the Waikiki Beach Boy football team.
