Notable features include: Improved gameplay and ball physics. FIFA 22 features a new physics system which tackles the ball better than ever before. Players can now control the flight of the ball with more finesse and pace than ever before. Intelligent AI. This year's FIFA introduces an intelligent AI that gets better with every year of the release. Players will now behave more intelligently as they are able to read and react to the game situation. For example, players are more likely to make smarter runs and make smarter decisions on the pitch. Improved contextual in-game tools. New contextual tools within the game will ensure that you, the player, always has the right information and tools, such as replays, match stats, injury info, assistant manager tools and more. These new contextual tools are displayed in a concise way that shows only the data that's directly relevant to what you need. The tool interface allows you to view all these different types of information in one central place, without having to drill down to specific details of the game. Improved goalkeeping and tactics. FIFA 22 introduces a number of improvements to the goalkeeper, including a new 'Finance Manager' that offers a deeper insight into the financial state of a team and allows you to manage your budget to create and maintain your ideal team. There is also a 'Sneaky Plays' system which will now allow you to make unexpected changes to your tactics. This can be done quickly and easily via the new Manage Team Tactics screen in the Opponent's Team screen. FIFA 21 introduced the popular EAS FIFA club competitions called the FIFA Club World Cup. For FIFA 22, EA Sports brought the Club World Cup to the next level with improved gameplay and gameplay animations for more authentic and realistic gameplay, including: New improved match engine. FIFA 22 introduces a new match engine that uses a variety of different camera angles, switches to 4K ultra-high definition, creates 3D models for the players and football fields and creates vast 3D stadiums to deliver the most realistic and immersive match experience available today. New weighted warm up system. For the first time, the FIFA 22 match engine allows you to configure the player movement patterns for players as they warm up in the squad. Players are able to train as many times as you want during a match week, but only after the final whistle does the player begin warm up. As the game warms up, the player behaviour is improved
